

Alumni Newswire

Newsletter Home

June 5, 2006

Featured Stories

In this issue

Alumni Focus

Naomi Judd, Diana Nyad
Are 2006 Commencement
Speakers

Awards Dinner to Become Annual Event

Alumni Career Fair Called
A Success

Serving as a National
Manager for Toyota

Class Notes

New University Apparel
Available Online

Teacher's Toolbox

Alumni Make Statewide
Mark as Grade School
Principals

Update on National Board
Certified Teachers

Alumnus Jack Sanders

Class Notes

Jack Sanders (BBA, 1977/MBA, 1982) is managing director of Spectrum Corporate Resources, a Fortune 500 Service for Middle Market Companies. he has personally handled over 130 business transfers and has appraised more than 1,450 businesses. Mr. Sanders is also the owner of BIZCOMPS, a Las Vegas, Nevada-based provider of business sales statistics.

Marie Loggia-Kee (MA, 2006) has been accepted to present her master's thesis at the Popular Culture and American Culture Association Conference at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in January 2007. Her thesis is on the novels of Stephen King.

Joan Boughton (BBA, 1980) owns a company, Joan Boughton & Associates, that is celebrating its 20th Anniversary. The La Costa-based business provides full-service Event and Meeting Planning services for a diversified local and national multicultural clientele. Ms. Boughton founded her business in 1986. For more information about Joan Boughton & Associates, visit the company website at www.JoanBoughton.com

Angela Kelley (MA, 2004) was recently offered a position with Stanislaus County Child Welfare Services as a Social Worker IV. Previously, Ms. Kelley was employed as a social work supervisor for a Foster Family Agency, along with three other staff members who also obtained their degrees from National University.